October 2026

Pinkham Happenings

Special Evening Programs, 7:30pm - 8:00pm

Friday, October 9

Three Voices that Build Community

Joe Dodge, Ty Gagne, and a surprise influence. Learn about three voices who influence and strengthen the community of people that loves, explores, and cherishes the White Mountains. Our guest speaker is Betsy Black, Volunteer Naturalist.

Saturday, October 10

Transition Time: Hiking in the Fall

Learn about what to expect and how to prepare for hiking in the White Mountains in the fall. A combination of stories, show and tell, and plenty of time for Q&A will be offered. Our guest speaker is Betsy Black, Volunteer Naturalist.

Sunday, October 11

Wildlife in the Whites

An exploration of the White Mountains' animal inhabitants with AMC Staff Naturalist, Lena.

Friday, October 16

Get to know Beavers

Beavers are important animals in our ecosystem and live rather unique lives. Our guest speaker is Volunteer Naturalist, Susan Feltus.

Saturday, October 17

Hibernation: More than Bears

Many animals hibernate, some that will surprise you. Come learn facts about hibernation with Volunteer Naturalist, Susan Feltus.

Naturalist Programs

Looking for more ways to explore? Join us for free naturalist programs, including guided nature walks, sustainability tours, Native Plant Garden tours, and more. Open to lodge guests and the public. Scan the QR code to see upcoming programs and activities!

Junior Naturalist Activity Books

Designed for kids ages 5–12, the Junior Naturalist program invites young explorers to learn about the natural world, how we interact with it, and the White Mountains we're visiting. Complete the activities in the book, then bring it to the front desk to officially become a Junior Naturalist and earn your patch!

AMC Pinkham Notch Visitor Center, Route 16, Pinkham's Grant, NH www.outdoors.org

AMC is operating unders pecial use permit with the White Mountain National Forest.

Pinkham Happenings are sponsored in part by L.L.Bean and the William T. Morris Foundation.